  - Any other business allowed by the National President person.
- 24.3 Written notice of the National AGM shall be sent to members at least twenty-one (21) days before the date of the National AGM together with the agenda of the AGM provided that the non-receipt of a notice by a member in good standing shall not invalidate the proceedings at the AGM.
- 24.4 Resolutions to be moved at a National AGM of the Association shall be proposed and seconded by two (2) members in good standing and shall reach the National Board by not later than 31st January. Such resolutions shall be fully motivated to enable them to be circulated to all members in good standing before the AGM.
- 24.5 A majority of 50 % plus 1 shall carry any motion at a general meeting of the Association except that resolutions for the alteration of the Constitution or the dissolution of the Association shall require a two-thirds majority of members in good standing present in person or by proxy. Such a proxy shall be a member in good standing.
- 24.6 An Extra-ordinary AGM of members of the Association may be called to consider matters of urgency or of particular importance to the Association. Ten (10) days notice of such meeting shall be given unless the majority of members agree in writing to waive such notice.
- 24.7 The National President shall chair all meetings of the Association. In the absence of the National President person, the meeting shall appoint a chairperson.

- 24.8 The quorum for all members' meetings shall be 30 persons or 5 % (whichever be the greater) of the members in good standing present in person or by proxy. A member may appoint as her proxy another member in good standing.
- 24.9 If within thirty (30) minutes of the time appointed for any general meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same time and place on the fourteenth working day after the original date of the meeting. Written notice of such adjourned meeting shall be sent to members at least seven (7) days before the date of the meeting. At the adjourned meeting, the members present shall then constitute a quorum.
- 24.10 The National Board may convene other members' general meetings. A Special General Meeting shall also be convened by the National Board on written notice signed by twenty (20) members in good standing, and not less than forty-two (42) days' notice. Thirty (30) members in good standing shall constitute a quorum and decisions shall be taken by a majority of 50 % plus 1 votes at such meetings.
- 24.11 The National Board may consult members in good standing and conduct such National Board and other business as is necessary through correspondence and written ballots.

25. QUORUM, NOTICE AND VOTING

Unless otherwise provided in this Constitution:

- 25.1 One half plus one of the persons entitled to attend and vote at a meeting, shall constitute a quorum.
- 25.2 A person entitled to attend and vote at members' meeting may appoint a proxy. The proxy shall be given in a form as approved by the National Board.
- 25.3 Reasonable notice of a meeting shall be given in person or by sending it to the member at the contact address as recorded in the National Member Register, by post or by fax or other electronic means.
- 25.4 A majority shall be deemed as 50 % plus 1 of the persons present at the meeting.
- 25.5 Voting shall be by secret written ballot.
- 25.6 The chairperson at any meeting shall have only one (1) vote.
- 25.7 A person who has a personal interest (directly or indirectly through a corporation or trust or otherwise) in any contract or arrangement, shall disclose that interest at the meeting concerned and shall not have a vote, but may attend and speak at meetings on that topic, by invitation of the National President person.
- 25.8 Only paid up members may vote at members' meetings unless the National President person at that meeting condones non-payment for the purpose of voting.

26. POWERS

- 26.1 The Association shall have the powers necessary, in the opinion of the National Board, to attain its objectives, and which powers shall be vested in the National Board, and, without limiting its general powers, may:
- 26.1.1 acquire, hold, invest, re-invest, improve, turn to account, and alienate moveable or immovable property;

- 27.7 However, to the extent that the Association is called upon to facilitate the formation of Joint Venture (JV) entities between small woman-led businesses, it shall do so at its expense and shall be duly reimbursed by the JV at a time determined by the National Board. The Association shall, while not actively engaged in creating JV's among large companies, encourage and facilitate the process.
- 27.8 Amendments to the Constitution shall be submitted for approval to the Commissioner for the South African Revenue Service, with effect from when tax exemption has been granted.
- 27.9 Upon winding up or liquidation, the Association shall give or transfer its assets remaining after the satisfaction of its liabilities to some other company, society or association with objectives similar to those of the Association.

28. PROVINCIAL CHAPTERS

- 28.1 The Association may grant charters to qualifying groups to be known as 'Provincial Chapters'. The Provinces will be further divided into regions and branches provided they meet the criteria set by the Board. In order for chapters to qualify for the AGM

- and to be declared as an established and legitimate structure, each chapter must not have less than 20 paid up members.
- 28.2 Each such provincial chapter shall abide by this Constitution.
- 28.3 Each chapter shall adopt the standard policies and procedures as reflected in the most updated manual of the National Board, and which are consistent with all applicable laws and other Governmental regulations.
- 28.4 The National Board shall establish criteria for the qualification of a new Provincial Chapter and shall be authorised to withdraw such status from any Provincial Chapter which fails to comply with any of the requirements established for it. The decision of the National Board on this matter shall be final.
- 28.5 Each Provincial Chapter shall hold an Annual General Meeting (AGM) before 29th of February every year in preparation for the National AGM and report on previous year's deliverables.
- 28.6 The Provincial Chairperson and her Executive Committee shall be elected at such a Provincial Chapter AGM.
- 28.7 Annual Planning Conferences: Each Provincial Chapter shall hold an Annual Planning Conference, at which official association business pertaining to the Province, which is not in conflict with the governing rules of the Association, may be conducted. All Provincial members in good standing, who are in attendance, are eligible to vote.

29. PROVINCES

- 29.1 The Association shall be divided into geographic provinces.
- 29.2 Provinces may be created, or their boundaries changed, by a two-thirds vote of the National Board.
- 29.3 Procedures for creating or re-districting of Provinces shall be established by the National Board.

30. AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

- 30.1 This Constitution may be amended by two thirds of the members in good standing present at the meeting convened for the purpose.
- 30.2 The proposed amendment shall be included in the Agenda. Notice of the proposed amendment/s shall be given to each member, twenty-eight (28) days prior to the meeting at which the amendment/s shall be considered, unless every voting member waives notice.
- 30.3 Twenty-one (21) days' notice of the proposed amendment/s shall also be sent to every member of the Association. If any member objects, she must inform the National Board in writing, giving her reason/s and suggested alternative/s, not later than seven (7) days before the meeting. If 10 % of members object in writing, the decision will be delayed to a "general meeting". This provision shall not apply to formal amendments made by the National Board to clarify or improve procedure, or to meet the requirements of the SA Revenue Service.
- 30.4 The amendment shall be reported to members at the following National AGM and a copy of the amendment/s to the Constitution shall be available for inspection. Copies of the amended Constitution shall be available to members.
- 30.5 A Special General Meeting of Members may be convened to amend the Constitution. The Constitution may be amended at such a meeting by a resolution passed by not less than 75 % of the voting members present in person or proxy and by not less than forty (40) persons or by 5 % of the membership, which ever be the greater.

30.6 Amendments to the Constitution shall be submitted for approval to the Commissioner for the South African Revenue Service.

31. DISSOLUTION

31.1 Provided that two thirds of the members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote, so agree at a general meeting of members duly called for that purpose:

31.1.1 The Association may be dissolved; or

31.1.2 The Association may resolve to amalgamate and merge with one or more similar organisations with aims which are substantially similar to those of the Association, in such manner as the members present at the meeting deem fit, in order to establish a new organisation which will generally benefit women in the workplace.

31.2 On passing a resolution to amalgamate and merge:

31.2.1 An Interim Committee with power to delegate and co-opt to fill vacancies shall be appointed at the meeting to take responsibility for the amalgamation procedure. The election of a new the national board shall not be necessary;

31.2.2 The Interim Committee shall have power to exercise all the powers of the National Board and power to do all things necessary to effect such amalgamation, including the amalgamation of provinces and to determine the date upon which assets and liabilities of the Association shall be vested in such new organisation and when a Provincial Chapter or the Association shall cease to exist. The Interim Committee shall have power to register all assets of the Association in the name of the new organisation, and to substitute the new organisation as debtor in regard to any one or more debts and contingent liabilities and obligations of the Association.

31.3 The board shall be elected to replace the Interim Committee not later than the first subsequent AGM of the Association or of the organisation resulting from the merger (referred to as the "new organisation"), as the case may be;

31.4 Any surplus assets after the liabilities have been met shall vest in the new organisation.

31.5 On dissolution and winding up:

31.5.1 An Interim Committee (with similar powers to those above) shall be appointed at the meeting to take responsibility for the dissolution procedure with power to delegate and co-opt to fill vacancies;

31.5.2 All assets shall be sold and all liabilities discharged;

31.5.3 Any surplus, after the liabilities have been met, shall be donated to an organisation with similar aims to those of the Association which is itself exempt from the payment of income tax and the decision as to which organisation shall receive the funds shall be agreed at the meeting at which the dissolution of the Association is decided.

ADOPTION OF THE AMENDED CONSTITUTION

The amended Constitution was approved and accepted by members present at the Special Annual General Meeting held on Thursday 20th October 2011 at the Royal Marang Hotel, Rustenburg, North West Province.
